AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

First Affirmative Defense

Plaintiff fails to state a claim against Defendants upon which relief can be granted.

Second Affirmative Defense

Service of process was insufficient as a matter of law.

Third Affirmative Defense

Plaintiff's state claims are barred under the provisions of M.G.L. c. 258 §10.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

Defendants state that their actions and conduct were performed according to and protected by law and/or legal process and therefore Plaintiff cannot recover.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

Defendants state that they were privileged in their conduct and acts and therefore Plaintiff cannot recover.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

Defendants state that if Plaintiff suffered injuries or damages as alleged, such injuries or damages were caused by someone for whose conduct Defendants were not and are not legally responsible.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

Defendants are entitled to immunity based upon good faith in that the harm suffered by Plaintiff was not a result which reasonable persons in Defendants' positions would have known would result from such action.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

Defendants state that at all times relevant hereto they acted without malice toward Plaintiff and that their actions relative to Plaintiff were privileged by virtue of their reasonable, good faith belief that their actions were lawful and within the scope of their discretionary authority as police officers.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

Defendants are qualifiedly immune from this suit as the alleged acts complained of occurred within the scope of their official duties.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

Defendants state that any force used toward Plaintiff was reasonable under the circumstances.

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

Defendants state that they were justified in their conduct and acts and therefore are not liable to the Plaintiff as alleged in the Complaint.

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

Plaintiff's claims against Defendants are frivolous, without any basis in fact and not advanced in good faith. Defendants are therefore entitled to attorney's fees, costs and any other sanctions the Court deems appropriate under the terms and provisions of 42 U.S.C. 1983.

DEFENDANTS CLAIM TRIAL BY JURY.
